THEATRICALLY YOURS.....

SEPTEMBER 2020

Happy New School Year! Welcome to our first student newsletter. Actually it's really your newsletter, because we're hoping you'll help us fill it with news of your accomplishments, recommendations of books to read, shows to watch, places to go and anything else you think would be of interest. – Heather Sanderson

Top Ten Reasons We Love Drama

10. It's fun.
9. You get to use your imagination.
8. You get to walk a mile in someone else's shoes.
7. You make friends.
6. It helps you be confident.
5. You get to make people laugh.
4. You get to use your outside voice inside.
3. Theatre is your sport.
2. It brings people of all different backgrounds together.
1. It feels good.

Why do you like drama? Email:
bardsplay@gmail.com

A Virtual Summer Camp 2020 Memory

Hogwarts Camp alumni Cooper, with Bellatrix Lestrange

JUMP INTO FALL!
www.thelittletheatre.com

Coming up...

September 25th - National Native American Day. Check out these books...How Raven Stole the Sun by Maria Williams; If You Lived with the Indians of the Northwest Coast by Anne Kamma; Raven: A Trickster Tale from the Pacific Northwest by Gerald McDermott. Totem Tale: A Tall Story from Alaska by Deb Vanasse.

What's your favorite book? Email: bardsplay@gmail.com

Did you know...when theatres all over the world had to close owing to COVID-19, they left their ghosts lights on indicating that they would re- open.

photo: Crissy Wilke

WANTED!

A real-life family to play Mr. & Mrs. Cratchit and Tiny Tim in a special production A Christmas Carol at LTA! Email Mike Baker at: Mike@nationalartstelevision.com for details.

Laughter is the best medicine...

Q: What's worse than finding a worm in your apple?

A: Finding half a worm.

Send your jokes to: bardsplay@gmail.com

" My dull brain was wrought with things forgotten. " William Shakespeare (Macbeth)

If you're taking an in-person class at LTA remember to bring your mask!